

International Mother Language Day

newstalk
106-108FM

ISL INTERPRETED RADIO BROADCAST

www.newstalk.com/globalvillage

Saturday 21st February
7pm-9pm

Dil Wickremasinghe interviews Professor Lorraine Leeson, Dr John Bosco Conama and Teresa Lynch and her son Daniel Crean on Irish Sign Language (ISL) and discusses aspects of language policy, ISL recognition and what it is like growing up with ISL in a family where the parents are Deaf and the child is hearing. Dil also speaks to Claudia Gray whose children are Deaf and discusses communicating in ISL from an early age.

The interview will be broadcast live in Irish Sign Language and on the newstalk website.

